6. [redacted] the Office of Personnel, called about an inquiry which had been directed to the Pentagon by Representative John S. Monagan (D., Conn.) concerning the Downey case. [redacted] I agreed that if Defense can answer Monagan's inquiry without involving the Agency and without making a statement which is untrue it would be best for the reply to come from them. However, we agreed that if there should be any difficulty about this, this office would get in touch with Monagan and advise him of Agency interest in the case.
